We believe in the power of every person. But we don't rest on our strengths - we stretch them. Sweat them. Combine them. Growing flexible, nimble and strong minds. That's how we do big things.

We're making big things happen at Nebraska.

We strive to make college affordable for all families, offering among the lowest tuition in the Big Ten.

- We're one of just 20 public universities named a Best Buy School by the 2018 Fiske Guide to Colleges.
- Last year's student enrollment was the largest and most diverse in the university's history.

We are providing the best support in guiding students to build on their strengths.

- Our Explore Center's COMPASS program, which helps students identify and declare a major, was named the 2018 Outstanding Advising Program by NACADA, the global community for academic advising.
- Through one of the nation's leading undergraduate research programs, Nebraska students work directly with faculty on research that creates new knowledge.

We are delivering results in education, research and outreach.

- Our May 2018 graduating class (3,223 degrees were conferred) was the largest in university history, producing more graduates and more talent for Nebraska's workforce.
- Along with the University of Nebraska Medical Center, we rank among the top 100 universities worldwide in earning U.S. patents to protect innovative research and discoveries.
- Through Nebraska Extension, we work directly with three out of four Nebraska farmers and ranchers each year to boost crop and animal productivity and improve their bottom line.

We appreciate your ongoing support of our Husker community... 60 BIG RED!

Tomis D. Drew

Chancellor, University of Nebraska–Lincoln

here's nothing like fall in Nebraska. It's a special season, full of traditions like Husker football that bring the people of our state together. Not only that, but fall signals the start of a new school year—bringing the promise of new experiences and opportunities for University of Nebraska students.

I BELIEVE NEBRASKA SHOULD BE THE BEST PLACE IN THE NATION TO BE A STUDENT.

What does that mean for our student-athletes?

- Students are at the heart of everything we do. We put their success and well-being first.
- The time student-athletes spend at NU lays a strong foundation for the rest of their lives.

There's no doubt we accomplish great things on the field, but what we do off the field is even more impactful. Husker student-athletes are role models and ambassadors for the university and our state. I'm impressed by their talents. And I'm grateful to the coaches and staff who serve on their behalf.

The University of Nebraska should be a place where all students can succeed. Where they matter, where their education is second to none, and where they leave ready to take on their next challenge.

Thank you for your support of the Huskers and the University of Nebraska. Go Big Red!

President, University of Nebraska

The Nebraska football team looks to bounce back from a 33-28 loss last week, as it takes on Troy (1-1) in game two of the 2018 season.

Despite opening the season with a loss, the Huskers put up over 500 yards of offense, including 329 on the ground. Additionally, the Blackshirts allowed just 44 rushing yards against Colorado, which included nine in the first half and -12 in the second quarter.

MARTINEZ OFF TO A HOT START

Freshman quarterback Adrian Martinez had an impressive college debut last weekend against Colorado. The Fresno, Calif., native accounted for 304 yards, including 117 rushing yards on 15 carries, a pair of rushing touchdowns and one touchdown pass. His 117 rushing yards marked the first 100-yard rushing day by a Husker quarterback since Tommy Armstrong in 2016 and it is the most by a NU quarterback in a season opener since Taylor Martinez rushed for 135 yards in 2011.

RECORD WATCH

After a breakthrough 2017 season, including setting a school record with 986 receiving yards, Stanley Morgan Jr. looks to write his way into the Nebraska record books in his final season.

In the season opener, Morgan had five catches for 75 yards, marking his 27th consecutive game with at least one reception. Morgan increased his career receiving yardage total to 1,818, moving into fifth place on the NU career receiving list.

BELL IMPRESSIVE IN DEBUT

Running back Greg Bell, a junior college transfer, got his first Division I start last weekend against the Buffaloes and made the most of it. He rushed for 104 yards, averaging eight yards a carry. Bell had a 45-yard run in the second quarter that was the longest by a Husker since 2016.

NEWELL SET TO RECEIVE SAM FOLTZ SCHOLARSHIP

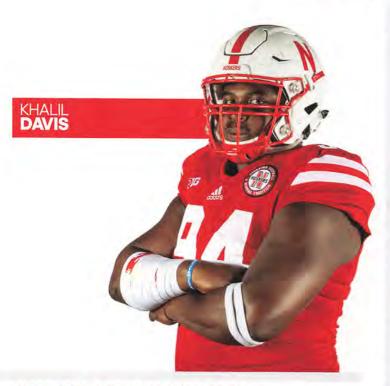

Senior defensive lineman Peyton Newell will receive the Sam Flotz Memorial Scholarship at today's game. Named in honor of former Husker punter Sam Foltz, who was killed in a car accident in July 2016 less than two months from the start of his senior year, the Sam Foltz Memorial Scholarship is presented annually to a football student-athlete who embodies Foltz's traits of leadership, excellence in the community and in the classroom.

Newell has played in eight games in his career. Off the field, the Hiawatha, Kan., native is a three-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll. Newell earned his degree in management in May of 2018, and will play this fall as a graduate student.

In the community, Newell was named to the Tom Osborne and Brook Berringer Citizenship Teams in 2016, 2017 and 2018.

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

Last night, six players were inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame, including Mike Rucker, Kyle Larson, Danny Woodhead, Dan Schmidt, Bob Sledge and Casey Beran. Additionally, Jim and Mary Abel - the Lyell Bremser Special Merit Award Winners - and Ruth and Bill Scott - the Clarence E. Swanson Meritorious Service Award Winners - were also inducted in the Hall of Fame. The group makes up the 2018 Nebraska Football Hall of Fame Class and will be recognized on the field at today's game. For more information on the inductees, see pages 14-15.

FOUR DOWNS

- Nebraska had seven sacks against Colorado in the season opener, including two by Khalil Davis. The seven sacks better last year's season high of five vs. Illinois and are the most by Nebraska since recording seven at Michigan in 2013. Last season, Nebraska had 14 sacks.
- Nebraska rushed for 329 yards against the Buffs last weekend, the most rushing yards for the Huskers since 2014. Adrian Martinez had 117, Greg Bell had 104, Devine Ozigbo had 60 and Maurice Washington had 34.
- Adrian Martinez and Greg Bell both rushed for 100 yards against Colorado, marking the first time Nebraska had a pair of 100-yard rushers in the same game since Ameer Abdullah and Imani Cross against Illinois in 2014.
- One of the most remarkable streaks in college sports continues today. Nebraska has sold out every game at Memorial Stadium since Nov. 3, 1962, an NCAArecord streak of 363 consecutive sellouts, 98 more than second-place Notre Dame.

THE TROY TROJANS

Troy comes to Lincoln with a 1-1 record. The Trojans fell in the season opener to No. 22 Boise State by a score of 56-20, but most recently defeated Florida A&M, 59-7 last Saturday. Troy had nearly 300 rushing yards and forced four turnovers in the game against Florida A&M.

On offense, sophomore running back Jabir Daughtry-Frye has rushed for 112 yards in two games and is averaging eight yards a carry. Senior Deondre Douglas leads the receivers with 128 yards and two touchdowns this season. Junior guarterback Kaleb Barker is 34-for-52 for 351 yards. He has five touchdown passes and one interception.

On the other side of the ball, sophomore inside linebacker Justin Whisenhunt and junior safety Melvin Tyus lead the defense with 11 and eight tackles, respectively. As a unit, the Trojan defense has racked up four sacks, two interceptions and three fumbles.

NEBRASKA VS. TROY SERIES HISTORY

Nebraska and Troy have met four times prior to today - all in the early and mid 2000s. The Huskers have won all four meetings by a combined score of 159-30, which includes a pair of shutouts in 2003 and 2006. In the most recent meeting, the NU offense generated nearly 600 yards of total offense and the Blackshirts shutout the Trojans in a 56-0 victory. Marlon Lucky had 10 carries for 156 yards and three touchdowns, while Zac Taylor completed 14-of-17 passes for 268 yards and one touchdown.

SMALL TOWN, BIG DREAMS

NEBRASKA NATIVE MATT JARZYNKA LIVING HIS DREAM WITH THE HUSKERS

Kyiia Rollag, Nebraska Communications

Loup City is a small Nebraska town about an hour north of Kearney. It is home to approximately 1,000 people, including senior defensive lineman Matt Jarzynka.

Jarzynka was raised on his family farm and some of his earliest football memories took place there.

"My dad is a third-generation farmer. We did a lot of work out there," Jarzynka said. "I just remember listening to a lot of games on the radio when we were out fixing the fence or doing something during the early fall, getting ready for harvest. I spent a lot of times listening to games on the radio when we were out working."

And it was there, on the farm that he discovered his dream. Being a small farm kid from Nebraska, Jarzynka has always wanted to play for the Huskers.

And he's made his whole family proud.

"My parents are really proud of me," Jarzynka said. "It's a pretty cool experience to get to do this. I'm a senior this year, so I've been here for about four and a half years now. It's just a pretty cool culmination of everything here now."

Nebraska football is known for being a brotherhood, and for Jarzynka that is definitely the case. He is going to miss his teammates the most and the bond he's created with them.

But of all the brotherhoods, one bond in particular sticks out the most to Jarzynka.

It was someone from the same agriculture background. Someone that he could connect with. That someone was Sam Foltz.

"I had a pretty special bond with Sam, because he came from kind of my area," Jarzynka said. "[He had the] same background, [he was a] walk-on, [his] dad farmed. He just always loved agriculture. So he was one of the few guys that I was able to talk farm with everyday. It was our little relief from football. We got to talk about farming and what was going on back home."

And earlier this year, Jarzynka won the Sam Foltz Hero 27 Leadership Award, named in honor of the late punter. For Jarzynka, it was one his highest achievements.

"That was a huge honor of mine," Jarzynka. "Everyone kind of says it, too. Everyone seems like they knew Sam, but that's just the type of guy he was. He just made everyone feel like you've known him forever."

After Nebraska, Jarzynka will continue his love for agriculture working for Gavilon, which is headquartered in Omaha. He will be a grain merchandiser in a to-be-determined city in Nebraska.

"I interned for Gavilon [in the summer]," Jarzynka said. "I ended up working in the Kearney office and I got to work with those guys there: Tony, Mark, Bobby, Mason, Brandon. Those guys were all really good people to learn from and I really enjoyed that internship. I learned a ton and hopefully it'll carry me on to the rest of my professional career."

INSIDE THE HUDDLE

How long do you think you would last in a zombie

"Me? Forever probably. I'm pretty confident in my survivalist skills. Any country kid from central Nebraska can kind of last I think.

What is your favorite cartoon?

"I was always a big Rugrats kid. I would watch the old stuff. Rugrats is up there for me. Probably one of my favorite cartoons."

Do you prefer cake or pie?

"Pie by a landslide. I'm a big strawberry rhubarb pie guy. I really like pie. Growing rhubarb used to be my thing, too, back on the farm. Every year on my birthday, my grandmother would make me strawberry rhubarb jelly or jam. That was my treat so I've always kind of liked strawberry rhubarb pie."

What is your favorite day of the week? "Friday.

What is your funniest childhood memory? "I'm the big, little brother so that was interesting."

HIAWATHA, KAN.

NEW COACH, NEW TEAM. NEWELL, HUSKERS LOCKED IN THIS SEASON.

Matt Jesus, Nebraska Communications

If you asked any current or past Husker to describe their first time running out of the Tunnel Walk and onto Tom Osborne Field in Memorial Stadium, into the Sea of Red, chances are they can tell you like it was yesterday.

For senior defensive lineman Peyton Newell, that is no exception.

"I still remember the first time I ever ran out on the field," Newell said. "I just remember looking around at everybody and kind of being out in space."

Newell came to Lincoln out of Hiawatha High School in Kansas, where he started every game of his career and set school records in tackles, tackles for loss and sacks.

Now, Newell is in his final season as a Husker. As he reflects on his journey, he acknowledges that it hasn't always been easy, but it's been worth it.

"It's been a long journey," Newell said. "It's definitely been day by day, and I'm forever thankful for all the opportunities that Nebraska has given me."

TUNNEL VISION

With a new coaching staff, there is a different feeling in the air around the Huskers this season. For Newell however, nothing has changed and he is ready to go to work each game.

"The feeling is just another day for us," Newell said. "We train so hard. They always say you fall back to your level of training. The nerves are really light just because we know we are prepared. We couldn't have done anything more than what we did."

And he knows what is important to him and what he wants to accomplish this season.

"I think I'm looking forward most to being out there with my brothers," Newell said. "We're so close with each other. We play for the brother to the left and the brother to the right like Coach Frost preaches and we're just excited to play. We want to get out there and show the world what we've been doing the last nine months."

While Newell and the team are excited to show fans their work in the offseason, Newell has been hard at work off the field as well.

In May, Newell earned his degree in management and is playing as a graduate student in his final season.

And it hasn't just been the last nine months. Newell is a three-time member of the Nebraska Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll and was named to the Brook Berringer and Tom Osborne Citizenship Teams in 2016, 2017 and 2018, for his service and leadership in the community.

Newell has made the most of his time as a Husker on and off the field, but is not finished yet. While his first time out of the tunnel was unforgettable, this season he and the Huskers are focused on something else when they walk out of the tunnel.

"This year is locked in," Newell said. "The atmosphere each game is unreal and we've got a game to win."

NEBRASKA FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

NFL STARS BRING PRO SUCCESS TO NEBRASKA HALL OF FAME

Long-time NFL standouts Mike Rucker, Kyle Larson and Danny Woodhead headline a list of six players, including four Huskers, who will be inducted into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2018.

Rucker, a major contributor on Nebraska's 1995 and 1997 national championship teams, went on to an All-Pro selection in his nine-year career as a starter at defensive end with the Carolina Panthers. Rucker recorded 17 sacks and 40 tackles for loss during his career as a Blackshirt, before notching 55.5 sacks among his 421 career tackles in the NFL.

Larson, one of the top punters in Nebraska football history, claimed first-team All-America honors for the Big Red as a senior in 2003. A three-time All-Big 12 selection, Larson was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Award in 2003. Larson, whose 195 punts are a Nebraska record, went on to a five-year career as an NFL starter with the Cincinnati Bengals.

Joining Rucker and Larson in the group of four Husker Hall of Famers, are offensive linemen Dan Schmidt and Bob Sledge. Schmidt was an honorable-mention All-American and an All-Big Eight pick at left guard for the Huskers as a senior in 1975. Sledge was a first-team All-Big Eight choice as an offensive tackle for the Huskers in 1988, when he helped Nebraska to an NCAA rushing title and a conference title.

Chadron State greats Danny Woodhead and Casey Beran add an impressive state college presence to the 2018 induction class. Woodhead was a two-time winner of the Harlon Hill Trophy (2006, 2007) as the nation's top player in NCAA Division II and a two-time first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American during his career at Chadron State. He went on to a nine-year NFL career as a running back with the Jets, Patriots, Chargers and Ravens. He received an automatic selection into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2008, but is being formally inducted this weekend. Beran was the first Chadron State Eagle in history to earn both All-America and CoSIDA Academic All-America honors in the same season. He also joins Woodhead as one of just three Eagles in history to be named the Omaha World-Herald's Nebraska State College Athlete of the Year. Beran won that award in 2000, following his dual All-America season in 1999.

The Hall also will recognize Bill and Ruth Scott of Omaha with its Clarence E. Swanson Meritorious Service Award, while Jim and Mary Abel of Lincoln will be honored with the Lyell Bremser Special Merit Awards.

The Nebraska Football Hall of Fame is sponsored by the Nebraska Chapter of the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame. The College Football Hall of Fame opened its headquarters in Atlanta in 2014.

Prior to 2015, players must have been either an All-American or first-team all-conference selection to make the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame ballot. Beginning in 2015, Huskers who earned second-team all-conference honors dating back to the expansion of the Big Eight to the Big 12 (1996) and now the 14-team Big Ten, will be eligible. Players are not eligible for the ballot until after a 10-year waiting period from the end of their collegiate careers. Major national award winners earn automatic induction. Active NFL players are not on the ballot.

This year's Nebraska Football Hall of Fame class celebrated together with an induction dinner on the University of Nebraska campus on Friday night. The class will be introduced prior to today's game with Troy at Memorial Stadium.

Dan Schmidt (1974-75-76)

An Associated Press Honorable-Mention All-American at left guard as a senior for the Huskers in 1976, Dan Schmidt was an All-Big Eight selection as a senior. Schmidt was a two-year starter and three-year letterman for the Big Red at guard for Coach Tom Osborne. Schmidt helped protect All-America quarterback Vince Ferragamo in 1976, allowing the Huskers to lead the Big Eight in passing offense and rank second in the conference in total offense. The 6-2, 222-pounder from North Platte helped the Huskers to a 28-8-1 record in his three seasons on the field, including trips to the Sugar, Fiesta and Astro-Bluebonnet bowls. Before joining the Huskers, Schmidt was an all-state player at St. Patrick's High School in North Platte.

Bob Sledge (1986-87-88)

A first-team All-Big Eight offensive tackle for the Huskers as a senior in 1988, Bob Sledge was a two-year starter and three-time letterman for Coach Tom Osborne and the Huskers. He helped Nebraska to the NCAA rushing title with 382.3 yards per game as a team in 1988, while the Huskers also won the Big Eight title before finishing an 11-2 season in the Orange Bowl. In his three seasons on the field at Nebraska, the Huskers went 31-6 and played in Sugar, Fiesta and Orange bowls. A second-team All-Big Eight choice as a junior, Sledge helped the Huskers rank second in the nation in total offense with 489 yards per game in 1987, including 373.5 yards per game on the ground. In addition to ranking third in rushing offense, the Huskers also ranked third in the country with 38.5 points per game his junior season. Sledge was an all-state defensive tackle at Omaha Gross High School in 1983, before beginning his college career at South Dakota. The 6-2, 270-pounder transferred to Nebraska after the 1984 season and redshirted at NU in 1985. Sledge was a business administration major at Nebraska.

Mike Rucker (1995-96-97-98)

A rush end on Nebraska's 1995 and 1997 national championship teams for Coach Tom Osborne, Mike Rucker was a second-team All-Big 12 choice as a senior before a long NFL career. Rucker was a four-time letterman and a full-time starter during his senior season when he recorded 53 tackles, including nine tackles for loss. As a junior for the 1997 national champion Huskers quarterbacked by Scott Frost, Rucker recorded 15 tackles for loss, including 7.5 sacks on his way to honorable-mention All-Big 12 accolades despite starting just two games. As a sophomore, Rucker also notched 15 TFL, including seven sacks. In 45 career games, he recorded 17 sacks among his 40 tackles for loss. He also caused five fumbles and four interceptions to go along with 36 quarterback hurries. Rucker was a second-round pick (38th overall) of the Carolina Panthers in the 1999 NFL Draft. He spent nine seasons as a disruptive defensive force with the Panthers, recording 421 tackles, including 55.5 sacks and forcing 16 fumbles. He also recovered seven fumbles and grabbed one interception in his 139 career NFL games. In 2003, Rucker earned a bid to the Pro Bowl while leading the Panthers to an NFC Championship and a trip to the Super Bowl. He was named the NFL Alumni Defensive Lineman of the Year that season after recording a career-high 12 sacks. Rucker came to Nebraska after an All-America career at Benton High School in St. Joseph, Mo. Rucker earned his bachelor's degree as a sociology major from Nebraska in December of 1998. He co-founded Ruckus House, a child development and learning facility, with Carolina teammates Mike Minter, Stephen Davis and Muhsin Muhammad. Rucker also founded Vision Group Realty, and he has served as a commentator for the Panthers Television Network.

Kyle Larson (2001-02-03)

One of the best punters in Nebraska history, Kyle Larson claimed first-team All-America honors as a senior for Coach Frank Solich in 2003. A three-time All-Big 12 selection who earned first-team all-conference honors as a senior, Larson was one of three finalists for the Ray Guy Award in 2003. He averaged a then-school record 45.12 yards per punt as a senior, which ranked No. 7 nationally. In the final six games of 2003, he averaged 48.5 yards per punt with 16 punts of 50 yards or more, including a career-long 80-yarder against Texas - one of only three punts of 80 yards or more by any player in Nebraska history. His 195 career punts are a Nebraska record, while his 43.67-yard career average ranks third in school history. Off the field, Larson was also a three-time second-team Academic All-Big 12 choice. After signing a free agent contract with the Cincinnati Bengals in 2004, Larson spent five NFL seasons as the starting punter in every game for the Bengals. He averaged 42.0 yards over 379 career punts, including a career-long 75-yarder. The native of Funk, Neb., who attended Kearney High School, joined the Huskers as a walk-on in 1999 after earning all-state honors as punter while also playing center and linebacker for the Bearcats. He earned his bachelor's degree from Nebraska with a degree in business administration in May of 2004, and he currently works as a sales representative for NMC Cat in North Platte. He and his wife, Lindsay, have four sons.

2018 HALL OF FAMER FROM THE STATE COLLEGE RANKS Casey Beran (Chadron State, 1996-97-98-99)

Casey Beran left his mark as one of the greatest players in Chadron State history when he completed his career as a consensus NCAA Division II All-American and a first-team CoSIDA Academic All-American for the Eagles in 1999. The first football player in Chadron State history to earn All-America honors both on and off the field, Beran was one of only three Eagles in history to be named the Omaha World-Herald's Nebraska State College Athlete of the Year. He won that award in 2000 following his All-America season as a senior in 1999. A native of Sargent, Neb., Beran was a first-team All-American by the Football Gazette and USA Football in 1999, and a second-team choice by Daktronics and the Associated Press that same season. He was a three-time first-team All-Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference selection and was named the RMAC Outstanding Defensive Player in 1999. Beran recorded 182 tackles, including a Chadron Staterecord 35 sacks in his career, despite missing most of his sophomore season in 1997 with an ACL tear. He also caused seven fumbles in his career and recorded 38 quarterback hurries. In addition to his prowess on defense, Beran scored 11 touchdowns as a fullback in goal-line situations for the Eagles, including seven as a junior and four as a senior. He was inducted into the Rocky Mountain Athletic Conference Hall of Fame in 2013, and in 2014 was named one of the top 12 defensive players in RMAC history during its Centennial Celebration. Beran earned his bachelor's degree from Chadron State as a human biology major in May of 1999. He graduated from the University of Nebraska Medical Center in 2004 and is an orthopedic surgeon with CHI Health at Creighton University. His wife, Molly, is an obstetrician.

Danny Woodhead (Chadron State, 2004-05-06-07)

Danny Woodhead is being honored with his formal induction into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2018, after earning his automatic place into the Hall in 2008 as a two-time Harlon Hill Trophy winner (2006, 2007). The two-time NCAA Division II Player of the Year, Woodhead ended his career as the NCAA all-time, all-division rushing leader with 7,962 yards on 1,135 carries for an average of 7.0 yards per carry. He added 101 rushing touchdowns. He averaged 181 rushing yards per game in his 44-game career, including per game in his 44-game career, including 19 games with 200 or more yards. He also scored at least one touchdown in 37 consecutive games - an NCAA all-division record. He added 1,417 career receiving yards on 119 receptions with eight more scores to finish with 9,480 career all-purpose yards. He finished with 654 career points, an average of 14.9 points per game. The first recipient of a full athletic scholarship in Chadron State history in 2004, Woodhead rushed for 1,840 yards as a true freshman, before adding 1,769 yards on the ground as a sophomore. He also had 367 yards receiving in his second season. As a junior, Woodhead rushed for 2,756 yards, which was an NCAA all-division record. He finished with 3,159 all-purpose yards in 2006. He added 1,597 rushing yards and a career-best 484 receiving yards a senior. At North Platte High School, Woodhead finished as the all-time leading rusher in Class A history with 4,891 yards from 2000 to 2003. Although undrafted out of college, Woodhead signed a free-agent contract with the New York Jets in 2008, but did not play in the 2008 season because of injury. He rejoined the Jets in 2009 and opened his nine-year NFL career with 10 games in 2009. He caught a touchdown pass in Super Bowl XLVI as a member of the New England Patriots to cap the 2011 season. In 2013 (1,034) and 2015 (1,091) with the San Diego Chargers, Woodhead enjoyed his most productive campaigns with over 1,000 yards from scrimmage in both seasons. In all, he played in 101 NFL games with 14 starts, amassing 2,238 career rushing yards with 15 touchdowns and 2,698 receiving yards with 17 touchdowns. He retired from the NFL on March 17, 2018. Woodhead was a math education major at Chadron State. He and his wife, Stacia, have four children.

HALL OF FAMERS BACK IN LINCOLN, EXCITED FOR NEBRASKA'S FUTURE

Brian Rosenthal, Huskers.com

One of the first people Michael Rucker laid eyes upon in early August after returning to Memorial Stadium was former teammate Matt Davison, now in an administrative role within the Nebraska football program. Blast from the past, Rucker thought.

Of course, he specifically remembered what most people do when initially seeing Davison or hearing his name – that miraculous gamesaving, national championship-saving touchdown catch as time expired to force overtime against Missouri in 1997.

"That's a good one," Rucker said, smiling.

Yeah, you could say that. Well, here's something else good. Rucker still has that game ball. When he stripped it from Missouri quarterback Corby Jones on the game's final play, well, he just never bothered returning it.

"I just kept running," said Rucker, who teamed with fellow Missouri native Grant Wistrom to sack Jones and seal Nebraska's 45-37 victory. "Once I took it from Corby Jones, I just kept running."

Consider it a signature play for Rucker in what can now be called a Hall of Fame career.

Rucker, a member of Nebraska's 1995 and 1997 national championship teams, is among four former Huskers inducted into the 2018 Nebraska Football Hall of Fame.

Former Huskers joining Rucker are punter Kyle Larson (2003) and offensive linemen Dan Schmidt (1978) and Bob Sledge (1988). Also members of the 2018 class are former Chadron State greats Danny Woodhead and Casey Beran.

Rucker, who played eight years in the NFL with the Carolina Panthers, returned to Lincoln at the request of former teammate Scott Frost, beginning his first year as Nebraska's head football coach. Frost wanted Rucker to address the Huskers after the first practice of preseason camp. Rucker's message to the team: Everybody matters.

"That walk-on. That guy that's redshirting. Where's your role?" Rucker said. "It's not like you take off, you've got a year to hang out. You have a role in this machine. You have a role with this team.

"You've got a clean slate," Rucker said. "You've got a new staff. You guys control the future. You draw the line in the sand and say, 'We, from this day, we don't go back across this line. We move forward.' If it's one step, it's one step. If it's 20, 30 ... we're moving forward. We're not going backwards."

Larson, from Funk, Neb., earned first-team All-America honors and was a finalist for the Ray Gay Award his senior season of 2003. The three-time All-Big 12 selection played five seasons with the Cincinnati Bengals, and he still holds the Nebraska record with 195 punts.

Schmidt, from North Platte, was an honorable-mention All-American and an All-Big Eight pick at left guard for the Huskers as a senior in 1975. Sledge, from Omaha, was a first-team All-Big Eight choice as an offensive tackle for the Huskers in 1988, when he helped the team to an NCAA rushing title and a conference title.

Woodhead, a North Platte native, received an automatic selection into the Nebraska Football Hall of Fame in 2008 but is being formally inducted with the 2018 class.

The 5-foot-8 running back twice won the Harlon Hill Trophy (2006, 2007) — NCAA Division II's version of the Heisman — and eventually enjoyed a nine-year NFL career despite going undrafted out of college. He's entering his first season of retirement from the NFL.

Beran, a native of Sargent, Neb., who played eight-man football in high school, played defensive end and fullback at Chadron State from 1996-99. He was the first Chadron State player to earn both All-America and Academic All-America accolades in the same season.

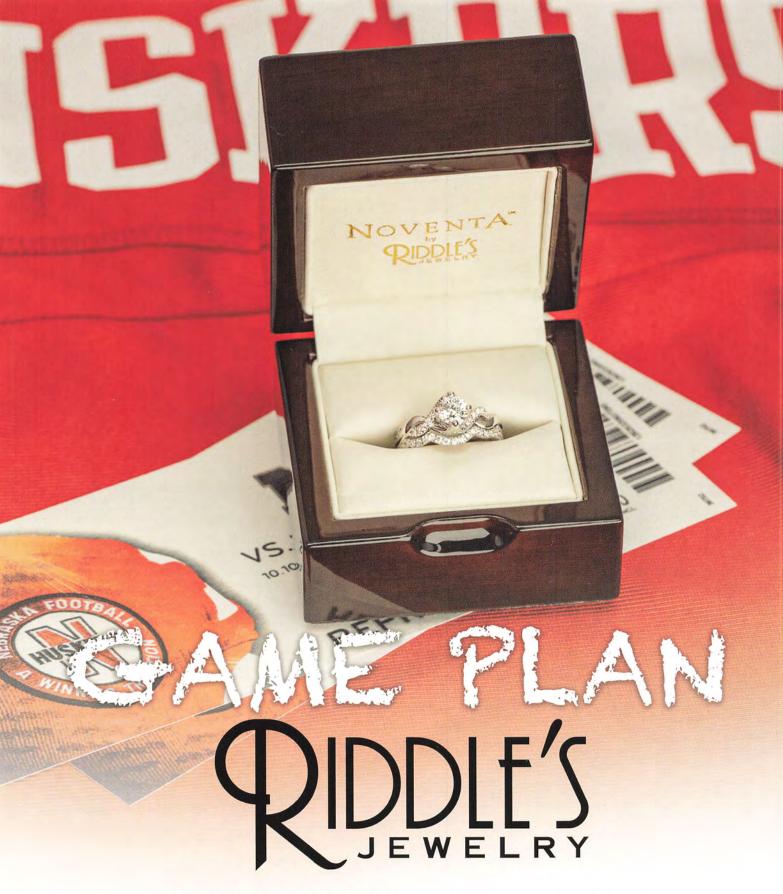

Rucker, meanwhile, is entering his 10th season as a television color analyst for preseason games for the Carolina Panthers and does a weekly podcast during the season. He continues to run Vision Group Reality, a real-estate business he founded in 2006, and is the Southeast coordinator for the NFL Legends Community, an organization that helps former players connect with their teams and the League.

Rucker, like many former Huskers, is excited the direction the Nebraska football program is taking with Frost at the helm.

"What Scott has brought, and his staff," Rucker said, "is a mixture of the new coaches that might be learning some of the tradition, and weaving in some people that have had some history and wisdom. It's a nice blend.

"We're going to be smart, and we're going to be tough," Rucker said. "If we're smart and tough, we're going to win some football games, and then we start building off that. That's what Scott brings back. I think he understands the history. I think he understands the fan base. We have the best fan base."

Tschetter helps undecided majors take first step toward Nebraska degrees nn Tschetter has a passion for helping students at Nebraska.

An assistant professor of practice and student adviser in the Department of History, Tschetter is among the first friendly faces that help guide Huskers through new student enrollment. She also serves as a marshal during Nebraska commencement exercises.

"I get to see our students on two of their best days at the university," Tschetter said. "The day you advise them is happy because they exit ready for classes. The day they graduate is happy because they are ready for a career.

"I think that makes my job the best in the world."

Tschetter enjoys the work so much, she agreed five years ago to help Explore Center colleagues with their work advising first-year Huskers who come to campus uncertain about an area of study.

This summer, Tschetter worked 23 of 24 new student enrollment sessions. And, alongside her normal slate of history majors, she helped advise more than 200 Huskers who were unsettled on a major prepare for the start of the fall semester.

In every one-on-one session. Tschetter tries to make a connection with each student - delving into likes and dislikes to identify potential areas of study. The advising sessions sometimes also stray into simple questions about the university.

Nebraska's Ann Tschetter shares a laugh with fellow marshals during commencement exercises Aug. 11 in Pinnacle Bank Arena.

"Many of them are worried or nervous, and we often have to explain things like how a college schedule works," Tschetter said. "We try to take time and answer all their questions to make them feel a little bit better about the transition to college.

"And, as I'm one of the first faculty they connect with, I always tell them they can come talk to me at any time."

Moos, who became the 15th athletic director in the history of the storied Cornhusker program, brings nearly 25 years of experience as an athletic director at three Division I schools (Washington State. Oregon, Montana) with him to Nebraska. More importantly, he brings an impressive track record of success in building outstanding programs, developing long-term relationships, and for doing what is best for his schools, its fans and most importantly, student-athletes

"When you name the top three, four, five athletic programs in the great positions as an athletic director, Nebraska is in that same breath," Moos said at his introductory press conference at Memorial Stadium. "I want you to know that my motto has always been, in the 25 years I have been a Division I athletic director and it will be here too is very simple - honor the past, live the present, create the future."

In his first six months at Nebraska, Moos made three coaching hires. He drew universal praise for hiring Scott Frost, the 2017 consensus national coach of the year, as Nebraska's head football coach in December. Following the spring semester, Moos also hired Mark Hankins to coach the men's golf team and Sean Maymi to lead the men's tennis program.

He also oversaw several team successes in his first six months in Lincoln. Moos watched the volleyball team win its fifth national title and second in three seasons in December. In 2018, both the men's and women's gymnastics teams finished in the top six at the NCAA Championships, while bowling finished third and rifle finished eighth. Nebraska also continued its excellence in the classroom, producing four CoSIDA Academic All-Americans, including three first-team selections. The awards increased Nebraska's nation-leading total to 333 all-time CoSIDA Academic All-Americans across all sports.

Moos came to Lincoln after spending seven-plus years at Washington State (2010-17). He previously served 12 highly successful seasons as the athletic director at Oregon (1995-2007). During his time at his alma mater, Moos wasted little time in making his impact felt in Cougar Athletics, spearheading a department-wide rebranding effort with Nike while securing a 10-year, $35 million marketing rights agreement with IMG College. In addition, the 2004 WSU Alumni Achievement Award winner gained Regents approval for a $130 million addition and remodel of Martin Stadium, featuring a remodeled press box with luxury seating, including suites, loge boxes and club room. Also included in the project was a state-of-the-art video board and an 80,000-square-foot football operations building that served as the stadium's showpiece and opened in May 2014. As the dean of Pac-12 athletic directors, Moos was at the forefront of the conference's procurement of a 12-year, $3 billion television contract with FOX and ESPN, a landmark agreement in college athletics. Under Moos' direction, the Cougar Athletic Fund's Annual Giving program saw an 81 percent increase in gifts while CAF donor members rose from nearly 4,000 to more than 7,500.

Other enhancements were made to the Moobery track facility Bailey-Brayton Field, the basketball practice gym, Gibb Pool and the Simmelink Indoor tennis courts. In Moos' seven years at WSU, Cougar student-athletes and coaches accounted for 805 academic all-conference selections, 130 all-conference accolades, 45 All-America honors and three Pac-12 Coach-of-the-Year honors.

Moos served as Oregon's director of athletics from July of 1995 to 2007. While at Oregon he oversaw a 17-sport athletic department that grew to national prominence during his tenure. Oregon's annual athletic department budget grew from $18.5 million in his first year to more than $40 million by 2007, becoming 100 percent self-sufficient during that time. Under his direction the Duck Athletic Fund donor base increased from 4,930 to 12,290, resulting in an annual gifts increase from $4.1 million to $15.3 million.

Moos initiated more than $160 million in facility improvements while at Oregon. Included in that was the $90 million Autzen Stadium renovation in 2002, which added 12,000 new seats, 32 new suites, a new Club at Autzen and a new press box to the stadium. In his 12 years, the Ducks ranked first in Pac-10 football attendance 11 times, reaching 100 percent capacity in each of those seasons.

During Moos' tenure, Oregon athletics captured 13 Pac-10 championships across six different sports. He increased opportunities for women by adding two intercollegiate programs, soccer and lacrosse, and negotiated an all-inclusive shoe and apparel contract with Nike, one of only 14 in the country at the time. From an academic standpoint during Moos' tenure, Oregon student-athletes collected 722 academic allconference selections, 34 Academic All-America selections, nine NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients and one NCAA Top Ten Award.

During his first stint as a collegiate athletic director at Montana (1990-95), Moos created an academic support program and hired its first athletic academic coordinator, developed a facility enhancement plan that created more than $4 million in improvements, and lifted the school's fund-raising efforts to show a 300 percent increase in private and corporate gifts.

Academically, Montana student-athletes were successful as the athletic department achieved a graduation rate 20 percent higher than the general university enrollment. Under Moos' watch Montana garnered 269 academic all-conference selections, five Academic All-Americans and two NCAA Postgraduate Scholarship recipients.

Moos began his athletic career as an athletic administrator in 1982 as assistant athletic director at Washington State. He also served as the school's associate athletic director (1988-90). At Washington State, he was director of development for more than five years and associate director for nearly two years, supervising all external operations. Prior to that, he managed and owned private businesses in Washington and Oregon for eight years. He was a student assistant football coach at Washington State for the 1973 season, then spent part of 1974 in Washington, D.C., serving as a government intern.

Raised on a wheat and cattle ranch in eastern Washington, Moos attended high school in Olympia when his father served in the governor's cabinet. Moos earned his bachelor's degree in history from WSU and was a three-year letterman in football before concluding his collegiate career by representing Washington State in the 1972 East-West Shrine All-Star Game in

He served as co-captain on the Cougars' 1972 squad and garnered first-team All-Pac-8 Conference honors. Moos and his wife Kendra have three daughters, Christa, Brittany and Kaiti; and two sons, Bo and Benjamin.

BIG LIFE, BIG STAGE. BIG TEN

Since its inception in 1896, the pursuit and attainment of academic excellence has been a priority for every Big Ten member institution. But maintaining the conference's standard of competing at the highest level in athletics also endures as an important component of the Big Ten experience. Striking that balance between academics and athletics is integral to the Big Ten's identity. Recognized as one of intercollegiate sports' most successful undertakings, the Big Ten strives for success from its students not only on the field and in the classroom, but around the world as well.

PREMIER ACADEMIC INSTITUTIONS

The Big Ten Academic Alliance is an academic consortium of all 14 Big Ten universities, which is widely considered to be the model for effective and voluntary collaboration among top research universities.

Every Big Ten Academic Alliance institution ranks among the top 70 universities in the nation according to the 2017 Academic Ranking of World Universities, including four in the top 25.

The Big Ten leads all conferences with more than 1,700 Academic All-Americans, including 34 honorees during the 2017-18 academic year.

Big Ten Academic Alliance schools annually conduct $10 billion in funded research, $5 billion more than any other conference.

A HISTORY OF ATHLETIC SUCCESS

Big Ten schools have won at least seven national championships in seven of the last 10 academic years and at least three in each of the last 25 years.

In the last five full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have claimed 31 team national championships in 15 sports.

Over the last 12 full academic years, current Big Ten institutions have won 85 team national titles in 23 sports.

BROAD-BASED PROGRAMMING

The Big Ten will administer over $200 million in direct financial support to more than 9,800 students competing in intercollegiate athletics for more than 11,000 participation opportunities on more than 350 teams in 42 different sports.

The Big Ten sponsors 28 official conference sports, 14 for men and 14 for women, including the addition of men's ice hockey and men's and women's lacrosse the last five years.

The Big Ten leads the nation in total students competing in intercollegiate athletics and participation opportunities, and sponsors more official sports than all conferences except the lvy

Almost 1,400 Big Ten competitors have participated in the Olympics, winning more than 600 medals, including nearly 300 gold. In the 2016 and 2018 Olympic Games, more than 200 representatives from Big Ten institutions including current or former students and coaches were members of Olympic teams. Big Ten Olympians collected more than 50 medals in the most recent games in Rio and PyeongChang.

PASSIONATE FOLLOWING

The Big Ten leads all conferences with 5.7 million alumni and nearly 580,000 students.

Each year more than 11 million patrons attend Big Ten home contests, as the conference has led the nation in attendance for men's basketball, ice hockey, volleyball and wrestling.

LEADERS IN INNOVATION The Big Ten Conference:

- Took part in the nation's first bowl game, winning the 1902 Rose Bowl Game, and signed an exclusive contract with the Tournament of Roses in 1946, making it the first bowl with permanent conference affiliations.
- Awarded the first Big Ten Medal of Honor in 1915, honoring outstanding seniors who demonstrated excellence in academics and athletics.
- Formed the Big Ten Advisory Commission in 1972, enlisting former students that competed in conference athletics to serve as liaisons to the NCAA's Diversity and Inclusion Department, the Big Ten Student-Athlete Advisory Commission and other organizations.
- Became the first conference to voluntarily adopt male and female participation goals after launching its Gender Equity Action Plan in 1992.
- Implemented the first collegiate football system of instant replay in 2004, which the NČAA approved for use among all conferences in 2006.
- Launched the Big Ten Network (BTN) in 2007, the first national conference-owned television network.
- Began partnering with the Ivy League to study the effects of head injuries in sports in 2012.
- Accepted Johns Hopkins University as the conference's first sport affiliate members in men's and women's lacrosse in 2013 and 2015, respectively, and added Notre Dame as a sport affiliate member in men's ice hockey in 2017.

EXTENSIVE TELEVISION EXPOSURE

Through the Big Ten's current media agreements with BTN, ABC/ESPN, CBS and FOX, more than 1,600 Big Ten events are produced and distributed nationally and globally on an annual BTN is in almost 60 million homes across the United States and Canada. BTN2Go is BTN's digital extension, delivering live and on-demand programming to computers, smartphones and tablets. BTN Plus within BTN2Go streams hundreds of additional events each season.

COMMUNITY INVOLVEMENT

For more than 25 years, through the Big Ten's SCORE (Success Comes Out of Reading Everyday) program, the conference has partnered with Chicago elementary schools to improve reading performance.

Surrounding the Big Ten Football Championship Game and Basketball Tournaments, the conference has held numerous community initiatives, partnered with the College Football Playoff Foundation and other events such as the Big Ten Career Expo, SaturDAY of Service and Youth Football Clinics. In addition, the Big Ten has hosted a downtown 5K, collaborated with a local breast cancer awareness group and provided unique event experiences for military veterans.

The University of Nebraska-Lincoln is the flagship university for the state of Nebraska, a member of the Big Ten Conference and one of America's fastest-growing research universities - by 2015, Nebraska had roughly doubled its level of research activity of 2000. In 2016, Nebraska ranked ninth on Springer Nature's international list of Rising Stars in research, leading the way in fields such as food and water security, early childhood development and nanoscience. In 2017 the university (along with its medical center) was among the top 16 percent nationally for its ability to commercialize the work of its faculty as noted by the independent Milken Institute. Also in 2017, Nebraska Innovation Campus was named the best new research campus in the world by the Association of Research Parks.

Enrollment (now more than 26,000 students) is also growing fast at Nebraska – 2017 was the third consecutive year enrollment reached a new all-time high. The student body in fall 2017 was also the most diverse in school history, reflecting Nebraska's landgrant commitment to providing access to higher education. With a combination of strong academics and affordability, Nebraska is one of just 20 public colleges and universities to receive the designation of "Best Buy" in the Fiske Guide to Colleges 2018.

Nebraska's campus is a community of creators and co-creators, where hard work and real experiences prepare our students not just to change the world, but to change with it. For example, through one of the nation's leading undergraduate research programs – one that is backed by more than $1 million in annual funding – Nebraska students work directly with faculty on research that creates new breakthroughs, insights and real-world applications. Nebraska faculty and staff are dedicated to helping students get the most out of college, develop their strengths, and get the preparation they need to be nimble and successful in an ever-changing world.

In 2019, the university will celebrate the 150th anniversary of its founding in 1869. The year will celebrate Nebraska's rich legacy of achievements and outline a vision for growing its positive impact on our state and the world in the next 25 years.

THE UNIVERSITY OF NEBRASKA

The University of Nebraska was chartered by the Nebraska Legislature in 1869 as the state's public university and land-grant institution. Founded in Lincoln, the University of Nebraska was expanded in 1968 into a state educational system now comprising four campuses under the guidance of a Board of Regents and a central administration. of Big Ten universities and the University of Chicago, which has generated unique opportunities for students and faculty by sharing expertise, leveraging resources and collaborating on programs.

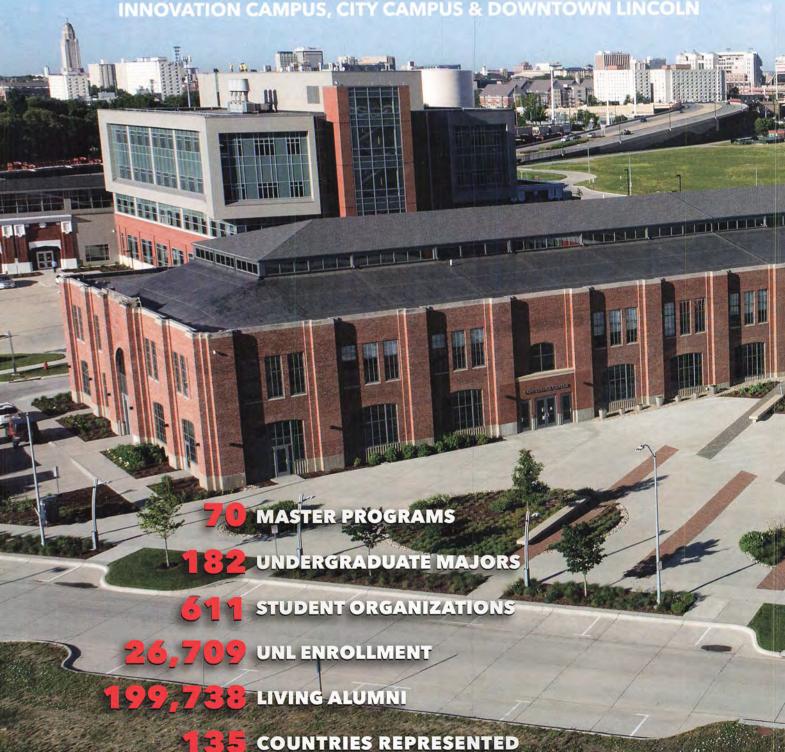

BIG TEN ACADEMIC ALLIANCE

of Nebraska-Lincoln (UNL) is a member of the Big Ten Academic Alliance (BTAA), formerly the Committee on Institutional Cooperation, which is the academic consortium of the universities in the Big Ten Conference. 2016. The BTAA includes all 14 Big Ten Institutions and the University of Chicago. The Big Ten Academic Alliances and the institutions together have annual research expenditures topping $10.2 billion — more than the Ivy League and the University of California System combined — and they educate a total of nearly 600,000 students with approximately 50,000 full-time faculty

STUDENT-ATHLETE EXPERIENCE

Nebraska Athletics is one of the few self-sustaining athletic programs in the country. In 2017-18, nine of Nebraska's 10 ticketed sports where attendance is tracked ranked in the top 25 nationally in average attendance and every sport ranked in the top 35. This incredible interest and support enables Nebraska Athletics to invest in the student-athlete experience, as well as the overall game-day experience.

Nebraska is a leader in providing all the resources and support necessary for student-athletes to become successful in Academics, Athletics and Life. Nebraska will continue to strategically plan for avenues to strengthen the resources to support more than 600 Husker student-athletes across 24 sports.

UNMATCHED SUPPORT

In August of 2014, the NCAA Division I Board of Directors restructured the way member institutions and conferences, including the Big Ten, govern themselves. Nebraska has a great history and tradition of providing unmatched benefits and support to student-athletes. However, this change in governance, and subsequent legislation, paved the way for Nebraska to enhance the benefits and experiences for student-athletes. A few examples of these enhanced benefits are:

- All scholarship student-athletes have their scholarship calculated based on the full cost of attendance.
- Each student-athlete is offered a free Apple MacBook Air laptop computer to enhance their learning opportunities.
- •Nebraska has increased resources and support in all academic and performance related areas including but not limited to Academic Services, Life Skills, Athletic Medicine, Athletic Training, Strength and Conditioning, Nebraska Athletic Performance Laboratory, Nutrition and Sports Analytics.
- As part of Nebraska's innovative Post-Eligibility Opportunity (PEO) program, every student-athlete graduate who has exhausted their athletic eligibility has the opportunity to pursue (with Nebraska support) an internship, participate in a study abroad program or attend graduate school within the University of Nebraska system.

TWO INDOOR & OUTDOOR PRACTICE FIELDS, WORLD-CLASS TRAINING FACILITIES AND COMFORTABLE LOUNGING AREAS, ALL WITHIN STEPS OF EACH OTHER.

HUSKER POWER: A NATIONAL LEADER

Husker Power is a nationally recognized brand and a source of pride for Nebraska Football.

NEBRASKA WAS THE FIRST TO:

- Have a paid strength coach
- Lift weights in-season
- Hold a summer conditioning class
- Offer a degree for strength coaching

Nebraska football student-athletes train throughout the year in the Ndamukong Suh Strength and Conditioning Center, one of the nation's finest facilities of its kind which has seen numerous improvements since it opened in 2006. The facility gives Husker student-athletes a technological and strategic advantage by combining state-of-the-art strength training innovation with top-notch coaching and programming.

A total of four full-time staff members are devoted to working with the football team. The staff works with Husker football student-athletes teaching proper strength and conditioning techniques, allowing them to reach their maximum potential. The football strength staff is led by Zach Duval, the 2017 National Strength & Conditioning Coach of the Year.

RETIRED JERSEYS

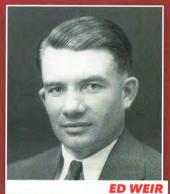

Following the 1949 season, the N Club voted to retire jersey No. 60 in honor of Tom "Train Wreck" Novak's stellar career with the Cornhuskers. Novak, the first Nebraska player to earn this honor, had been a four-time All-Big Seven choice and a 1949 All-American. Today, all major national award winners and College Football Hall of Fame inductees at Nebraska automatically have their jerseys retired, but their numbers will still be available to active Huskers.

HUSKERS IN THE COLLEGE FOOTBALL HALL OF FAME

The University of Nebraska is well represented at the National Football Foundation and College Football Hall of Fame in Atlanta. In 2018, Aaron Taylor will become the 18th former NU player selected to join six former Husker coaches inducted into the Hall. Taylor was announced as one of 10 players in the 2018 Hall of Fame Class in January and will be formally inducted on Dec. 4, 2018. Former All-America tackle Ed Weir claimed the honor as the first Husker player enshrined, while coaches Fielding Yost and Dana X. Bible were also inducted the same year (1951). Coach Tom Osborne, inducted in 1998, is the most recent Husker coach enshrined in the hall.

GROFF AGIL

The Proven Leader in Fertilizer Placement & Residue Management!

Talon Floater Row Cleaner

Competitors get less aggressive at the tips of their fingers, which means a lot of down pressure is needed to keep them from simply rolling over residue. This pressure can lift the planter row unit and move a lot of soil. The Groff Talon wheel gets more aggressive at the tips of the fingers, resulting in a superior row cleaner that moves residue and less soil, and requires less down pressure.
